I. Introduction

James Walter Lucas and Barbara Jean Lucas (“Debtors”) are the debtors in a Chapter 11 bankruptcy case. On November 28, 2016 the Debtors commenced a bankruptcy case by filing a voluntary Chapter 13 petition under the United States Bankruptcy Code (“Bankruptcy Code”), 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. The case was converted to Chapter 11 by order dated June 9, 2017.

This document is the Chapter 11 plan (“Plan”) proposed by James Walter Lucas and Barbara Jean Lucas (“Proponent”). Sent to you in the same envelope as this document is the Disclosure Statement which has been approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the “Court”), and which is provided to help you understand the Plan.

This is a reorganizing and liquidating plan. In other words, the Proponent seeks to accomplish payments under the Plan by recasting certain secured obligations and reducing the secured amounts thereunder, “stripping” certain secured obligations down to the market value of the collateral, and reducing the interest rates to be paid to the secured creditors. The Effective Date of the proposed Plan is thirty (30) days after the date of the order confirming this Plan.

II. Classification and Treatment of Claims

A. General Overview

As required by the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan classifies claims and interests in various classes according to their right to priority of payments as provided in the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan states whether each class of claims or interests is impaired or unimpaired. The Plan provides the treatment each class will receive under the Plan.

Certain types of claims are not placed into voting classes; instead they are unclassified. They are not considered impaired and they do not vote on the Plan because they are automatically entitled to specific treatment provided for them in the Bankruptcy Code. As such, the Proponent has not placed the following claims in a class. The treatment of these claims is provided below.

1. Administrative Expenses and Fees

Administrative expenses are claims for costs or expenses of administering the Debtor’s Chapter 11 case which are allowed under Code Section 503(b). Fees payable to the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court and the Office of the United States Trustee were also incurred during the Chapter 11 Case. The Code requires that all administrative expenses be paid on the Effective

Date of the Plan, unless a particular claimant agrees to a different treatment.

Court Approval of Professional Compensation and Expenses Required:

The Court must approve all professional compensation and expenses.
